

AUSTRALIAN ASSOCIATION OF CONSULTING ARCHAEOLOGISTS INCORPORATED

P.O. Box 214, Holme Building, University of Sydney, NSW, 2006

NEWSLETTER No. 7.

Registered for Posting as a Publication — Category B

January, 1981.

1. Notice of A.G.M.**

The Annual General Meeting of A.A.C.A.

will be held on 14th, March

~~at 12 noon, in the Reading Room~~

Antropology Department, Sydney University.

Anyone wishing items to be included on the Agenda of the A.G.M. should notify the Secretary.

2. MEMBERSHIP

The Membership Sub-Committee has received applications for membership and applicants have been notified of decisions reached.

Draft copies of the Register entries of the successful Members will be sent to them prior to final publication for them to edit.

The next Membership Sub-Committee Meeting will be held on 14th March in conjunction with the A.G.M. Persons who wish to have their applications for membership considered at that time should send appropriate documentation to The Membership Secretary, Eleanor Crosby, P.O.Box 1, Kambah, A.C.T.

Please do not send any monies with your application. You will be notified after your application has been considered of the fee payable.

Persons wishing only to be Subscribers to the Newsletters of 1981, should send $10 directly to The Treasurer, Len Cubis, c/o A.A.C.A. It should be remembered that Members, Affiliates and Associates receive the Newsletter as part of their membership fee and do not have to send an additional $10.

3. NEWSLETTER

Correspondence regarding requests for field assistants has been received. These requests will be included in the Newsletters if publication of the Newsletter is prior to the Fieldwork. The next issue of the Newsletter will be in April.

Annual subscriptions for the Newsletters are now due. Only paid up subscribers will receive the next issue.

4. THE REGISTER

The first Register is at present being compiled. It will be available before the A.G.M. Applicants accepted at the Membership Sub-Committee Meeting in March, will be included in the second issue of the Register.

A list of institutions and companies to whom the Register should be sent is at present being compiled. If you can suggest suitable recipients please write to- Anne Bickford, c/o A.A.C.A.

5. CONTRACT WORKSHOP

This was held on Monday, 1st December, at Valla Beach after the A.A.A. Conference. About 25 persons attended. The discussions were rewarding and one of the positive outcomes was the attached draft document called- "Points to be Considered when Drafting a Contract."

This document will form the basis of a Booklet on contract format, but we still require your suggestions, comments, criticisms, further additions or sad experiences. The Booklet will contain clauses for consideration when drawing up a contract and will also contain explanatory notes.

Please send your comments on the attached clauses and suggestions for the explanatory notes to- Contract Sub-Committee
Margrit Koettig & Tigger Wise
c/o A.A.C.A.

Information on Legislation and Work Conditions in the various States was also presented at the Workshop. This is presently being compiled by the Legislation Sub-Committee. Any suggestions and submissions you wish to make on these matters please send to- Legislation Sub-Committee
Mary Dallas & Anne Bickford
c/o A.A.C.A.

The results of these investigations will be presented to the A.G.M., hopefully in the form of a draft Booklet.

6. PARLIAMENTARY SELECT COMMITTEE REPORT

Following the Associations letter to the Premier on the Report, a reply was received requesting a meeting. This was held on 8th December with the Deputy Secretary of the Premiers Department, Mr Stevens.

The matters raised in our letter were discussed and he requested the Association send him a detailed submission. This is at present being prepared. If you have read the Select Committee Report or our letter to the Premier and wish to comment on any aspect of the Report which you feel relevant and should be included in the submission please write as soon as possible as this submission must be in by the end of February 1981.

7. INSURANCE

This is another reminder* to anyone interested in the insurance policies detailed in the last Newsletter. Please contact the Association stating your preferences.

8. CORRESPONDENCE

All correspondence to the Association and its various Sub-Committees should be addressed to- A.A.C.A.

P.O.Box 214
Holme Building,
University of Sydney.

Unless otherwise directed eg., membership enquires should be addressed to the Membership Secretary, Eleanor Crosby, P.O.Box 1, Kambah. A.C.T.